GVD MARKETS Capital Ltd., is a limited liability company incorporated and registered under the laws of Comoros, with Company number HY00723419 and a registered address at Bonovo Road – Fomboni Island of Mohéli – Comoros Union (hereinafter the “Company” and/or “GVD Markets” and/or “we” and/or “our” and/or “us”). The Company is authorized, regulated by the Mwali International Services Authority (the ‘MISA’) and operating as a Securities Dealer Licensee under the FSA License number T2023331.

Contracts for Difference (“CFDs”) are complex financial products traded on margin, and due to leverage, there is a risk of rapid loss. 73.42% of retail investor accounts lose money when trading CFDs with this provider. You should consider whether you understand CFDs and whether you can afford to take the risk of losing your money, and if necessary, seek independent financial advice.

Any information on the GVD Markets website and its affiliated pages is intended to provide trading dynamics and information services for signal providers and followers to the public. This service does not provide any form of investment advice. The trading strategies and signals provided by signal providers in this copy trading system do not represent recommendations of this platform. GVD Markets does not advise users on buying or selling forex, CFDs, derivatives, or other financial instruments.

This disclaimer is jointly signed by GVD Markets and individuals or companies registered and explicitly accepting such terms and conditions on <https://gvdmarkets.com>.

While this website has taken prudent measures to verify the information, it does not guarantee the accuracy of all information contained therein. Please understand that our information may not be comprehensive, may be incomplete, or may be delayed. This website or independent information providers shall not be responsible for any actions taken based on information errors, incompleteness, delays, inaccuracies, or reliance on information from this website. All predictions or opinions (such as predictions of future exchange rate changes) and trading activities based on these predictions represent the individual views and actions of third parties, and do not represent the position of this website.

You must understand that third-party predictions do not represent any form of performance commitment, so do not emulate them directly. You must conduct independent analysis to make investment decisions. At the same time, it should be understood that investment actions made based on judgments made from this website's content may result in actual profits or losses. Your investment actions based on the trading strategies and signals provided on this website, and the investment actions made using personally configured copy strategies, are the results of your own decisions and you must bear all risks yourself.

This website explicitly states that trading Forex, CFDs, derivatives, and other financial instruments not only brings profits but also entails considerable risks. The trading copy system of this website is only suitable for followers who have a certain understanding of high-risk investments. You can invest with spare funds without affecting your daily expenses. The past performance of any trading strategy does not guarantee its future performance. Generally, future exchange rate changes are unpredictable, which also means that no personal strategy, financial advisor, manual, or automated trading system can guarantee any form of profit from forecasts. Therefore, investment forecasts must be analyzed independently to make judgments, and blind obedience should be avoided.

All financial product trading instructions generated by using copy strategies are considered authorized by you. You must understand and agree that all risks arising from the use of copy strategies based on the information you provide are borne by you. This website is not responsible for the instructions of the trading system. You should bear all consequences of using copy strategies to follow trades.

Neither GVD Markets nor any partner of this platform shall be responsible for your losses.

Neither GVD Markets nor any partner of this platform can guarantee that you will definitely profit from trading based on the copy system information or following the signals provided by signal providers. In addition, as the developer of the copy trading system, GVD Markets will not be liable for any losses incurred due to delays or negligence of third parties. GVD Markets or any partner of GVD Markets website explicitly states that they will not be responsible for the strategies and trading signals provided by signal providers.

The laws and regulations of the jurisdiction where GVD Markets is registered shall govern this disclaimer and any disputes between the parties to this disclaimer, unless otherwise specified by law. In any civil litigation or other legal proceedings in which one party to the contract seeks to enforce the rights under this disclaimer or seeks to declare any rights or obligations under this disclaimer, each party to the contract shall bear the fees and expenses of its legal representatives. The parties to the contract recognize the exclusive jurisdiction and legal venue.

GVD Markets may provide this disclaimer or any other documents, information, and messages to partners in multiple languages. It is stipulated in this disclaimer that partners shall recognize and acknowledge that the working language of this company is English. In the event of any discrepancy or inconsistency between the non-English expression and the English expression of any document, information, or message, the English document, information, or message shall prevail.

Risk Warning: Forex and CFD trading carry significant risk. CFDs are complex instruments and come with a high risk of losing money rapidly due to leverage.
